The University, vide circular cited under reference, had issued necessary instructions to students regarding submission of scholarship applications and their institution-level verification through the National Scholarship Portal (NSP).

The verification of the scholarship applications is under process. Several applications with the correct details have been verified. While other with discrepancies are being marked defective, enabling the concerned students to make the necessary corrections through the portal.

In this regard, all students are hereby advised to:

i. Carefully go through the remarks provided against their defective scholarship applications on the NSP portal.
ii. Make the necessary corrections and submit the requisite documents in accordance with the remarks communicated.
iii. Resubmit the corrected applications online/submit documents to scholarship section within the prescribed timeline to facilitate further verification at the institution level.

Further, it has been observed that several students have not submitted the mandatory supporting documents required for institution-level verification. In this regard, it is reiterated that submission of the requisite documents in the prescribed format, as enclosed herewith, is mandatory for verification of scholarship applications by the University.

Students are cautioned that failure to submit the required documents and/or comply with the deficiencies pointed out in the remarks will result in non-verification of their applications at the institution level. Consequently, such applications will not be considered for further processing of the scholarship.
