ABOUT KALABURAGI AND HYDERABAD KARNATAKA REGION

Central University of Karnataka is situated in Kalaburagi (Gulbarga) in Hyderabad Karnataka region. The region is vibrant with multilingual and multicultural structure. The region has given birth to acclaimed academicians, literary personalities, religious leaders and philosophers and houses philosophical and educational centres, epistemological works, social movements, great dynasties, incredible folk traditions in verbal and non-verbal art forms and industries. One of the oldest human settlements in Asia is found at Samper of Surpur taluka. Remains of the Stone Age are seen in and around the areas of Maski, Hire Benakal, and Balichakra etc.

The history of this region is rich in to literature. Many Vachanakaras, Kirtanakaras and Tatvapadakaras hail from this region. Works like Allama's vachanas started epistemological tradition in the region. There are also many religious and philosophical centres like Sannati, Kanagana Halli, Koppala, Manyakheta (Capital of rashtrakoota kingdom), Kalyana (Capital of Chalukya kingdom), Bidar, Savalagi, Tintini, Mudgal in the region.

Hyderabad Karnataka has been home to many great dynasties like Rashtrakuta, KalyaniChalukya, Vijayanagar, Bahumani, Barid Shahi, Surapur Dore etc. This marvellous history has also led to incredible folk literatures both in verbal and non-verbal ways. The ancient sculptures at Hampi, Shiravala, Evuru, Kalagi, Bidar, Kalyana, Kalaburagi, Itagi etc., are worth mentioning. However modern technology has not left this region untouched.

A stone inscription discovered at Maski in Raichur district changed whole perception of understanding the history of India, for it being the first of its kind inscription found in the name of 'Devanampriya', Asoka the Great, thus pointing to the Maurya empire reach to Tungabhadra. Sannati was one of the most prominent and vibrant Buddhist centres as Archaeological Survey of India excavations there have already established. Nagavi Ghatika in Chittapur taluk of Kalaburagi district was the most sought after center of higher learning attracting students and scholars from different parts in the medieval period. It enjoyed the patronage of Vikramaditya-VI, one of the mightiest emperors of the world of his times. This Ghatika, equivalent to today's university, had a well-established library managed by a qualified librarian, according to an inscription found here.

Maha Veeracharya (815 A.D.-878 A.D.), an ancient mathematician in the court of Rashtrakuta emperor Amoghavarsha who wrote Ganitasara Sangraha and Sri Jayateertha (1365 A.D. -1388 A.D.), a Vedantic scholar also known by the epithet Tikacharya, belonged to Malkhed on the bank of river Kagina of the region. Veeracharya's marvelous mathematical treatise 'Ganitasara Sangraha' in Sanskrit verse, is a landmark work found relevant even today, in several aspects of mathematics. 'Kavirajamruga', the first extant Kannada literary work was produced by Srivijaya around 850 AD during the period of Amoghavarsha alias Nrupatunga of the Rashtrakutas. The book about the theory of literature particularly poetry, has played a vital role in according classical language status to Kannada. Vijnaneshwara, a celebrated jurisprudentialist, in the court of Vikramaditya- VI, the Kalyani Chalukyan emperor, wrote the magnum opus 'Mitakshara', commentary to the Yajnavalkya Smriti, in the 11th century. Hailing from Martur near Kalaburagi, Vijnaneshwara's Mitakshara became corner stone of the Indian legal system and it remained the sole system of justice throughout India except Bengal and Assam from 12th century till India attained independence.

Khwaja Bande Nawaj (1321-1422), a Sufi saint, settled in Gulbarga on the invitation of Bahman king Feroz Shah, was a pioneer in Urdu literature with his work 'Me Rajul Askini'. His Dargah at Kalaburagi has become a major pilgrim centre for Muslims all over India and even abroad.

Kalaburagi is one of the three districts transferred from Hyderabad State to Karnataka State at the time of re-organization of the States in 1956. Now among the 30 districts of Karnataka, it is located in the North-Eastern part of state and lies between North latitude 17°10" and 17°45" and between east longitude 76°10" and 77°45". Kadaganchi is about 21 kilometres (13 miles) from Kalaburagi city on SH10 highway with frequent services of KSRTC buses.

DEPARTMENT OF LINGUISTICS

Coordinator of the Department: Dr. Basavaraja Kodagunti

Introduction:

The rich multilingual situation of India provides both challenges and opportunities for a well-designed research and training program in Linguistics. The great history, mutual relationship between language families for thousands of years in India provides ample scope to research. The greater tradition of language studies of different languages in India too needs attention. Justification for a systematic study of language in India has not only intellectual, but also pragmatic one in terms of urgent regional, state, and national priorities. India faces many challenges in language education, both in mother tongue and second language teaching. Integration of the historically underprivileged and marginalized classes and castes into the educational mainstream is a national priority and language issues are a major stumbling block. Many minority and tribal languages await description, documentation and development. The use of India languages as medium of higher education remains an unfulfilled goal, especially, in the sciences. Developments in technology, such as the use of regional language in texting, emails, and the internet, call for precise descriptions of languages and adoption in natural language processing. India needs trained people in different applied fields to meet the present and future need of the society. The linguistics programme and courses the Department are to make students aware of the issues and to train them to work in different areas related.

Introduction of the School:

The School of Earth Sciences works to gain a better understanding of our planet, the resources that support society and the challenge of sustainability. We use a variety of methods and tools to address our research questions, including field work, laboratory and experimental studies, and computer modeling. The School of Earth Sciences is one of the first few schools established by Central University of Karnataka. It is home to TWO departments, offering post graduate and undergraduate degrees in GEOGRAPHY and GEOLOGY. The School of Earth Sciences is committed to educating a new generation of scholars who will reflect the diversity of intellectual perspectives, life experiences, and cultural backgrounds represented in society today.

The School has some MoUs and close collaboration with eminent National and International Universities and Research Institutions such as Salzburg University, Austria, University of Tartu, Estonia, National Institute of Rural Development, Hyderabad, Central Ground Water Board and Indian Institute of Remote Sensing (Indian Space Research Organization), Dehradun and other reputed institutions for Teaching, Research and exchange programs for both faculties and students.

The School consists of the following Departments:

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY

Head of the Department: Prof. Ali Raza Moosvi

Introduction:

The Department of Geography since its inception in 2010 has aspired to make a difference in the existing educational system and approaches acknowledging the multi-disciplinary nature of Geography and its dissemination as such to bring a prominent difference in the social, economic, physical, environmental and political (including planning) scenario of the region and the country. We thus endeavour to take the teaching of Geography with multi-disciplinary perspective along with substantial disciplinary depth.

The Department attempts to bring in an innovative approach in the way the subject is taught and studied with the courses offered aiming at integrating both the basic theory and the applied aspects. The Department is determined and prepared to make a distinct mark in the field of the subject, with a group of young and enthusiastic faculty members along with updated teaching and educational tools, focussing both on the core discipline as well as harnessing the utility of geographic information system. The candidates are expected to learn and understand the basics of the discipline and an intelligent application of the same with Geoinformatics tools and techniques with an ability to rationalize the importance of physical and social (human) aspects of the planet earth. To this end, the Department offers its flagship 5 years integrated B.Sc. and M.Sc. programme with an exit option to exit after three years with a Bachelor's degree.

DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGY

Head of the Department: Prof. Mohammed Aslam M. A

Introduction:

The Department of Geology has good facilities and laboratories to cater to the needs of practical course- work of M.Sc. students as well as for research. Geology is the study of the interacting systems of the solid Earth with atmosphere, hydrosphere, and biosphere as they evolve through time. The courses offered at the Department focuses on the scientific study of the earth. Geologists discover, develop, and responsibly manage minerals, energy, and other earth resources. Geological knowledge enables to ensure a sustainable development of natural resources and the use of these resources responsibly.

The courses offered by the Department covers a wide range of core courses in geology and allied subjects. It provides foundation for the study of fundamental geologic methods and problems, both in the laboratory and in the field. It includes instruction in geomorphology, sedimentology, hydrogeology, geochemistry, stratigraphy, mineralogy, petrology, geostatistics, geophysics, remote sensing, environmental geology, economic geology, geophysical principles and geoinformatics. These courses are designed such that they blend traditional basics of earth sciences with the emerging cutting-edge geo-spatial applications and techniques so that the students are equipped with both theoretical constructs and practical applications of the subjects. DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

Head of the Department : Dr. Deepak Samuel

The Department of Physics was started in the year 2012 and has ever since been in pursuit of excellence in physics education and research. The department currently offers M.Sc physics and Ph.D physics programmes. The department with 4 faculties has its primary research activities focusing on soft-matter physics, spintronics, high energy physics and proton therapy. The department is gradually building its infrastructure with laboratories hosting research instruments like AFM, LB trough, X-ray diffractometer, Closed cycle cryogenic system, Sputtering unit and a GPU server. Recently, the Department has forayed into the burgeoning area of artificial intelligence, device development and membrane physics.

The major strength and highlight of the M.Sc programme is the project work carried out by the students in the final semester. The students can opt to carry out their project work at CUK or at another institution in India in a field of their choice. This training has helped students get first-hand experience of working in a research environment in addition to improving their scientific communication skills. Some of these projects have also resulted in peer-reviewed publications. As a result, more than 10 students have been placed in international Ph.D programmes and many others have joined premier institutions like IISc, IITs and NITs. Another important educational initiative of the Department is the running of refresher courses in experimental physics supported by the Academies of Science. The Department has hosted 3 such courses so far and some of our faculties have been participating regularly as resource persons in many parts of the country.

Our faculty have initiated national and international collaborations and regularly present their work in seminars and conferences. Specifically, the Department has been actively involved in India's 2000 Cr. mega-science project India-based Neutrino Observatory and national initiatives like The Indian Nanoelectronics Users Program (INUP).
