ABOUT KALABURAGI AND HYDERABAD KARNATAKA REGION

Central University of Karnataka is situated in Kalaburagi (Gulbarga) in Hyderabad Karnataka region. The region is vibrant with multilingual and multicultural structure. The region has given birth to acclaimed academicians, literary personalities, religious leaders and philosophers and houses philosophical and educational centres, epistemological works, social movements, great dynasties, incredible folk traditions in verbal and non-verbal art forms and industries. One of the oldest human settlements in Asia is found at Samper of Surpur taluka. Remains of the Stone Age are seen in and around the areas of Maski, Hire Benakal, and Balichakra etc.

The history of this region is rich in to literature. Many Vachanakaras, Kirtanakaras and *Tatvapadakar*as hail from this region. Works like Allama's vachanas started epistemological tradition in the region. There are also many religious and philosophical centres like Sannati, Kanagana Halli, Koppala, Manyakheta (Capital of rasthrakoota kingdom), Kalyana (Capital of Chalukya kingdom), Bidar, Savalagi, Tintini, Mudgal in the region.

Hyderabad Karnataka has been home to many great dynasties like Rashtrakuta,

KalyaniChalukya, Vijayanagar, Bahumani, Barid Shahi, Surapur Dore etc. This marvellous history has also led to incredible folk literatures both in verbal and non-verbal ways. The ancient sculptures at Hampi, Shiravala, Evuru, Kalagi, Bidar, Kalyana, Kalaburagi, Itagi etc., are worth mentioning. However modern technology has not left this region untouched.

A stone inscription discovered at Maski in Raichur district changed whole perception of understanding the history of India, for it being the first of its kind inscription found in the name of 'Devanampriya', Asoka the Great, thus pointing to the Maurya empire reach to Tungabhadra. Sannati was one of the most prominent and vibrant Buddhist centres as Archaeological Survey of India excavations there have already established. Nagavi Ghatika in Chittapur taluk of Kalaburagi district was the most sought after center of higher learning attracting students and scholars from different parts in the medieval period. It enjoyed the patronage of Vikramaditya-VI, one of the mightiest emperors of the world of his times. This Ghatika, equivalent to today's university, had a well-established library managed by a qualified librarian, according to an inscription found here.

Maha Veeracharya (815 A.D.-878 A.D.), an ancient mathematician in the court of Rashtrakuta emperor Amoghavarsha who wrote Ganitasara Sangraha and Sri Jayateertha (1365 A.D. -1388 A.D.), a Vedantic scholar also known by the epithet Tikacharya, belonged to Malkhed on the bank of river Kagina of the region. Veeracharya's marvelous mathematical treatise 'Ganitasara Sangraha' in Sanskrit verse, is a landmark work found relevant even today, in several aspects of mathematics. 'Kavirajamruga', the first extant Kannada literary work was produced by Srivijaya around 850 AD during the period of Amoghavarsha alias Nrupatunga of the Rashtrakutas. The book about the theory of literature particularly poetry, has played a vital role in according classical language status to Kannada. Vijnaneshwara, a celebrated jurisprudentialist, in the court of Vikramaditya- VI, the Kalyani Chalukyan emperor, wrote the magnum opus 'Mitakshara', commentary to the Yajnavalkya Smriti, in the 11th century. Hailing from Martur near Kalaburagi, Vijnaneshwara's Mitakshara became corner stone of the Indian legal system and it remained the sole system of justice throughout India except Bengal and Assam from 12th century till India attained independence.

Khwaja Bande Nawaj (1321-1422), a Sufi saint, settled in Gulbarga on the invitation of Bahman king Feroz Shah, was a pioneer in Urdu literature with his work 'Me Rajul Askini'. His Dargah at Kalaburagi has become a major pilgrim centre for Muslims all over India and even abroad.

Kalaburagi is one of the three districts transferred from Hyderabad State to Karnataka state at the time of re-organization of the states in 1956. Now among the 29 districts of Karnataka, it is located in the North-Eastern part of state and lies between North latitude 17°10" and 17°45" and between east longitude 76°10" and 77°45". The District is the biggest in the state covering 8.49% of the area and 5.9 % of population of the state. Kadaganchi is 21 kilometres (13 miles) from Kalaburagi on SH10 highway with frequent services of KSRTC bus.

DEPARTMENT OF LINGUISTICS

India has the oldest and arguably, the richest tradition of linguistic studies in the world. The rich multilingual scenario of India provides both challenges and opportunities for a well-designed research and training program in Linguistics. The great history, mutual relationship between language families for thousands of years in India provides ample scope to research. The greater tradition of language studies of different languages in India too needs attention. Justification for a systematic study of language in India has not only intellectual, but also pragmatic one in terms of urgent regional, state, and national priorities. India faces many challenges in language education, both in mother tongue and second language teaching. Integration of the historically underprivileged and marginalized classes and castes into the educational mainstream is a national priority and language issues are a major stumbling block. Many minority and tribal languages await description, documentation and development. The use of India languages as medium of higher education remains an unfulfilled goal, especially, in the sciences. Developments in technology, such as the use of regional language in texting, emails, and the internet, call for precise descriptions of languages and adoption in natural language processing. India needs trained people in different applied fields to meet the present and future need of the society. The linguistics programme and courses are to make students aware of the issues and to train them to work in different areas related.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

Introduction:

The Department of Physics offers a 2 year (4 semesters) Master's degree program to prepare students for a career in teaching and research. Students will not be allotted any branch of specialization in Physics at the time of admission. The first two semesters will be devoted to the study of foundation courses in Physics. During semester II and III the students will have the freedom to study subjects of his/her choice under the guidance of a faculty advisor. The fourth semester is set apart exclusively for a dissertation project. The entire curriculum is designed to prepare a student to enter a research career in multi-disciplinary areas of science and technology in research organizations and industry. The program emphasizes on developing scientific and innovative spirit, instilling professional ethics and spirit of service to the society.

The most attractive feature of the M.Sc. program is the freedom given to the students to decide about domain specialization during the 2nd year of their studies. They would be guided to select from a basket of elective courses focused on a major domain of Physics. They would also have the opportunity to study cross-disciplinary subjects depending on their interest. Thus, the students would be well prepared to contribute to research in multi-disciplinary fields of contemporary interests. Another prominent feature of the M.Sc. program is the Dissertation project to be carried out in the 4th semester. The students will be allotted a project at the end of the 2nd semester and they would be required to explore the project topic by self-study during the 3rd semester. At the end of this study they would be required to submit a project proposal to carry out a project in the final semester. This study would be carried out under the supervision of a faculty advisor. The project itself can also be carried out in a prominent research organization in India. Thus the project would provide the students with research experience to enable them to continue further into the PhD Program.
