Vice-Chancellor's Message

I am delighted to present the 15th Annual Report of Central University of Karnataka, Kalaburagi for the year 2022-2023. The University has registered unprecedented growth and development in terms of academics, research, publications and outreach activities in the academic year 2022-2023. This is reflected in its NIRF ranking. Central University of Karnataka has found a place in the NIRF ranking in the category of 151-200 for the first time. It makes me feel proud of my faculty, students and supporting staff.

Central University of Karnataka, which is established in Kalaburagi, is a vibrant place and it has its own historical and cultural importance and significance. It is the place where the first legal commentary Mitaksara was written by Vignaneshwara, the first Jain University was established at Nagavi and the first Parliament was established at Basavakalyan in 12th century.

As a part of Azad ka Amrit Mahostav, University organised quit India movement on 8th August 2022, organised a photo exhibition and a lecture in connection with partition horrors remembrance day and rally with lamps on the night of 14th August 2022 and took a big procession with 100 meters National flag on 15th August 2022.

During this academic year the University conducted several national and international seminars, workshops, symposiums of short and long duration which are reflected in the Annual report. These events have attracted the attention of the scholars and researchers across the nation. The inflow of funds to the tune of more than three crores from various funding agencies is a testimony to the seriousness and the commitment with which the faculties are doing their research.

The awards received and the patents registered by the faculties reinforce our commitment to the development of quality research in the University. Further, to support and strengthen the research component, the University initiated purchase of new equipment such as 600 MHz Nuclear Magnetic Resonance Spectrometer, Single Crystal XRD worth 45 crores for the Sophisticated Instrumentation Centre under the Higher Education Funding Agency (HEFA) project, which will operationalize from the academic year 2023-24.

Further, Strengthening of Engineering Laboratory has been initiated for the benefit of Engineering students which will operationalise in the academic year 2023-24.

The University has a lot of talent and we are committed to provide the right platform to the students and the faculties to bring out their latent intellectual and innovative talent which will provide inputs to startups. The University has constructed a building under HEFA to establish a innovative centre to offer various resources and services to entrepreneurs, startups and established businesses. This will create a atmosphere where the students, researchers, faculty and industry to come together.

University has strengthened the placement cell by providing employment skills and conducting employment drive by inviting organisations for the recruitment of students through campus placements. As a result , more than hundred students have been recruited by various organisations.

The University has started 12 programmes of four year undergraduate honours with research programmes to implement NEP 2020 during academic year 2022-23 with multiple exit and entry. The programmes are B.A Honours in History, Economics, Social work, English, B.SC Honours in Chemistry, Physics, Life Science, Geology, Geography, Psychology, Computer Science and Mathematics. The Admissions are made based on the score obtained in the CUET(UG), CUET(PG) conducted by National Testing Agency. As a result, the University could attract students from almost all the states and union territories of India.

As a part of mission recruitment, the university has recruited 42 Assistant Professors, Associate Professors and Professors. The University has once again advertised the unfilled teaching vacancies and advertised non teaching vacant posts to recruit under mission mode recruitment which will strengthen University in terms of man power and quality teachers to achieve quality in higher education. The University has initiated several steps for overall development of the University to provide quality education during academic year 2022-23.

I am sure that we shall take the necessary steps to take the University to great heights and make the best use of its intellectual, scientific and artistic resources for the holistic growth of the University. At the end, I can only say that the University will take necessary and assured steps to contribute a good deal to the nation building because we can survive if only the nation survives and we can be stable only if the nation is stable. I wish all the best to all the stakeholders of this University.

4.4.2 Department of Geology

Head: Dr. M Lingadevaru

About the Department

The Department of Geology has good facilities and laboratories to cater to the needs of practical course-work of M.Sc. students as well as for scholars. Geology is the study of the interacting systems of the solid Earth with atmosphere, hydrosphere, and biosphere as they evolve through time. The courses offered at the Department focuses on the scientific study of the earth. Geologists discover, develop, and responsibly manage minerals, energy, and other earth resources. Geological knowledge enables to ensure a sustainable development of natural resources and the use of these resources responsibly.

The courses offered by the Department covers a wide range of core courses in Geology and allied subjects. It provides foundation for the study of fundamental geologic methods and problems, both in the laboratory and in the field. It includes instruction in Geomorphology, Sedimentology, Hydrogeology, Geochemistry, Stratigraphy, Mineralogy, Petrology, Geostatistics, Geophysics, Remote Sensing, Environmental Geology, Economic Geology, Geophysical Principles and Geoinformatics. These courses are designed such that they blend traditional basics of earth sciences with the emerging cutting-edge geo-spatial applications and techniques so that the students are equipped with both theoretical constructs and practical applications of the subjects. The Department of Geology strives to achieve academic excellence and to produce geoscientists with world-class training.

Programmes offered:

- ❖ B.Sc. in Research with Geology as major (4 Years)
- ❖ Integrated M.Sc. in Geology (5 years)
- ❖ M.Sc. in Applied Geology (2 Years)
- ❖ Ph.D. in Geology

4.7.5 Department of Linguistics

Head: Prof. Basavraj P Donur

About the Department

India is one of the oldest and richest traditions of linguistic study. The rich multilingual situation provides challenges and opportunities for a well-designed research and training program in Linguistics/Language Sciences. The great history and relatedness within and between languages and language families provide ample scope for academic research. The linguistic and literary traditions of various languages in India offer intellectually stimulating and emotionally integrating outcomes. Justification for a systematic study of language in India has not only scholarly, but also pragmatic in terms of urgent regional, state, and national priorities. India faces many challenges in language education, both in mother tongues and in second languages. Integration of the historically underprivileged and marginalized classes and castes into the educational mainstream is a national priority and languages can play an enabling role. Many lesser-known, minor, and tribal languages need attention from scholars and policymakers to carry out the description and documentation tasks for their development. The use of Indian languages as a medium of higher education remains an unfulfilled goal, especially, in the sciences. Recent advancements such as the use of regional languages in texting, emails, and the internet, call for precise descriptions of languages and the adoption of techniques from natural language processing. Thus India needs a trained workforce in different applied areas of Linguistics to meet the present and future needs of the society. The program and courses offered by the Department of Linguistics at CUK are designed to address these issues in research and teaching.

4.8 School of Life Sciences

Dean: Professor N. Sathyanarayana

About the School

The School of Life Science at Central University of Karnataka was established in 2019, with a vision to provide high quality education and research. The school has been supported under UGC Special Assistance Programme, to maintain high standard of teaching, training, and cutting-edge research facility. The Department of Life Science is currently the only constituent of this school. The primary goal of the schools is to generate and nurture highly motivated and skilled future-ready human resources (undergraduates, postgraduates, doctoral and postdoctoral students) to address scientific challenges in the areas of plant & animal health, agriculture, and ecology and environment. The motto of the School may be expressed as ‘think globally and act locally’ which forms the underpinnings of future developments in the backdrop of post-modern globalization where each local element finds a place of importance. At all levels, we train students to both make sense of the human world and to engage with it actively as globally aware citizens.

Department of Life Science

4.8.1 Department of Life Science

Head: Professor N. Sathyanarayana

About the Department

The Department is supported by a team of six faculty members having excellent research and teaching experience in frontier areas of biology from premier institutes. The faculty members have earned several national and international distinctions in fellowships, awards, and travel grants. The entire team is working together towards advancing the knowledge of young minds with critical thinking and hands-on training that will help them lead their career path.

The Department of Life Science offers a four-year BSc program, a two-year MSc program, and a five-year PhD program in Life Sciences. The Department offers ‘B.Sc. Life Science’ undergraduate degree program of either 3 or 4-year duration with or without research, as per the NEP-2020 guidelines. This program would not only specialize a student in a major discipline (Life Science) but also expose him/her to a wide range of disciplines due to the flexibility of choosing intra-disciplinary, inter-disciplinary, and skill, ability enhancement and value-added courses, resulting in holistic learning and training. The curriculum would cater to the requirements of vocational, professional, and skill development areas. Upon completing the course, the students would be equipped and skilled to take up either Plant or Animal Biology for their higher studies.

The MSc program is one of the most sought-after courses the University offers. The first-year program includes common subjects such as cell biology and microbiology, biological macromolecules, tools and techniques in biology, enzymology, molecular biology, genetics, genetic engineering, immunology and ecology and evolutionary biology. The second-year program is focused on specialized training in Animal Sciences and Plant Sciences that covers all the frontier areas of plant/animal biology. There will be a dissertation work in the last semester. The selection of specialization by a student is based on merit cum preference. Overall, all these courses offered by the Department will provide a platform for students to expand their knowledge and technical skills in the primary and applied areas of life sciences and motivate them to pursue higher studies nationally and internationally.

The Department also offers a 5-year Ph.D. program in Life Science where research scholars carry out in-depth research in emerging areas of biological sciences, focusing on local, national, and global issues. Students would have access to sophisticated instrumentation and state-of-the-art research facilities. The program is designed to develop scientific thinking, practical approach & innovation and instill professional ethics and a spirit of service to society.

Department Facilities:

The Department has three research laboratories, two postgraduate teaching laboratories, two smart classrooms, and one seminar hall. Apart from the basic research facilities, the Department also possesses central instrumentation where some advanced equipmentents are housed. The Department is now establishing a state-of-the-art reseach facilites, supported by the Higher Education Funding Agency (HEFA).

Programmes offered:

- ❖ B.Sc. in Life Science (4 Years)
- ❖ M.Sc. in Life Science (2 Years)
- ❖ Ph.D. in Life Science (5 Years)

4.11.2 Department of Physics

Head: Dr. Bharat Kumar

The Department of Physics was started in the year 2012 and has ever since been in pursuit of excellence in physics education and research. The Department currently offers M.Sc. physics and Ph.D. physics programs catering to about 60 postgraduates, 90 integrated program students, and 8 Ph.D. students. The Department with 5 faculties has its primary research activities focusing on soft-matter physics, spintronic, high energy physics, proton therapy and condensed matter physics. The Department is gradually building its infrastructure with laboratories hosting research instruments like AFM, LB trough, X-ray diffractometer, closed cycle cryogenic system, sputtering unit, and a GPU server. Recently, the Department has forayed into the burgeoning area of artificial intelligence, device development, and membrane physics.

The major strength and highlight of the M.Sc. program is the project work carried out by the students in the final semester. The students can opt to carry out their project work at CUK or another institution in India in a field of their choice. The students present their work and also submit a report at the end of their project. This training has helped students get first-hand experience of working in a research environment in addition to improving their scientific communication skills. Some of these projects have also resulted in peer-reviewed publications. As a result, more than 10 students have been placed in international Ph.D. programs and many others have joined premier institutions like IISc, IITs, and NITs. This reflects the outstanding training our students receive.

Another important educational initiative of the Department is the running of refresher courses in experimental physics supported by the Academies of Science. The Department has hosted 3 such courses so far and some of our faculties have been participating regularly as resource persons in many parts of the country. Our faculty have initiated national and international collaborations and regularly present their work in seminars and conferences. Specifically, the Department has been actively involved in India's 2000 Cr. mega-science project India-based Neutrino Observatory, and national initiatives like The Indian Nanoelectronics Users Program (INUP). To date, the Department, through its faculty, has received grants of over Rs. 70 Lakhs for carrying out research projects.

Programmes offered:

- ❖ B.Sc. in Physics (4 Years)
- ❖ M.Sc. in Physics (2 Years)
- ❖ Ph.D. in Physics

4.12.3 Department of Psychology

Head: Prof. Romate John

Since its establishment in 2009, the Department of Psychology has evolved into a dynamic academic unit within the SSBS, dedicated to fostering psychological expertise and advancing research excellence. Our faculty comprises five permanent members and an additional five on a contractual basis, collectively driving the education of a diverse cohort of 180 students.

Our academic programs offer a wide array of options, including two-year Master's degrees, a five-year Integrated program, Doctoral studies, and a four-year Honours program in BSc Psychology with research, introduced in 2022. At the core of our programs are specialized courses in Clinical-Counselling Psychology and Organizational Behaviour- Human Resource Management. The Department emphasizes a comprehensive approach, integrating theoretical teaching with practical skills training through laboratory work, field experiences, and virtual labs. A defining feature of our programs is the substantial 1000-hour internship, spanning hospitals, industries, and communities, which underscores clinical diagnosis, psychotherapy, counseling, organizational development, human resource management, and training. The dedication of our faculty members and students to research is evident through the publication of over 24 research articles in SCOPUS, Web of Sciences, and UGC CARE-listed journals with commendable impact factor scores and also through the 42 research paper presentations in various national and international conferences. The Department has organized six national-level skills development workshops, contributing to academic discourse and revenue generation.

Our students' accomplishments are impressive, with 46 students successfully clearing NET, JRF, and GATE screening eligibility tests. Alumni have gone on to excel as Assistant Professors, Research Assistants, Psychologists, Clinical Psychologists, and Scientists and have pursued further studies and job placements at esteemed institutions, including IIMs, DIPR, IITs, Central Universities, and reputable private and foreign universities. The Department has established robust affiliations with 17 mental health hospitals and six industries, ensuring meaningful internships for all students. Our recent international conference on Health, Wellbeing and Technology drew over 225 participants, reaffirming our academic impact. Faculty members have undertaken extramural research projects supported by DST, ICSSR, and national consultations. The Department conducted six community extension activities involving faculty and students. 6.6 COVID-19 Testing Centre

I. About lab:

The population of Kalaburagi is more than 5 lakhs which includes most of the areas under rural region, which are deficit of availability of proper medical facility to combat COVID-19 due to very fast spread of this disease. As per the present rate, it is expected that COVID-19 cases may further increase due to several factors to ensure adequate screening establishment of additional COVID-19 testing center is crucial, especially in the area encompassing rural areas. The Central University of Karnataka can play a pivotal role in screening of COVID-19 cases, as the University is located near Kadaganchi village, in Aland taluka; however well connected to the main city. In view of the above, Central University of Karnataka has established molecular diagnosis and research laboratory to test COVID-19 samples, approved by NIMHANS, ICMR and Govt. of India that is supported by MHRD and State Govt. of Karnataka to strengthen the testing efficiency for Kalaburagi region. This laboratory was inaugurated on 5th Nov 2020 by Dr. Rajshekhar Malli (DHO, Kalaburagi), Prof. H M Maheshwaraiah (Former Vice Chancellor, CUK) and Prof. G R Naik (Former Pro Vice Chancellor, CUK).

The COVID-19 Testing laboratory CUK has been recognised as reallocation centre by State Surveillance Unit (SSU) and mapped to multiple state medical hospitals and COVID 19 testing centres are as following

- a) GIMS Kalaburagi,
- b) VIMS Ballari
- c) BIMS Belagavi

Due to the low throughput of the RNA isolation machine (12 channel) the time consumption for RNA sample extraction for 96 takes around 7 to 8 hr, the testing capacity of the lab is restricted to 250 – 300 samples (in case of pooled strategy) per day. The testing of sample is done in a single shift (9:30 am to 5:00 pm). The details of time required for sample testing is elaborated in the below mentioned table.

Sl. No.	Analytical instruments	Description	Time required for analysis
1	Automated RNA Extraction	12 Channel (Repeated for 8 times)	30 Mins (Sample preparation) 40 Mins (Extraction) 8 hours (if done simultaneously)

Proposed Work:

Provided the support of State Government continued for the manpower and consumable our lab can undertake following objectives

- 1. Plans to request for COVID-19 samples to be allocated from whole Aland Taluk; Kalaburagi, to the COVID-19 Testing Center, Central University of Karnataka, for regular functioning of the lab
- 2. Written a proposal to State Surveillance unit to permit for the H1N1 testing and waiting for the approval.

Training and Support

The lab has extended its service to 10 students of MSc Life sciences and 5 students of Department of Chemistry to train about Biohazards and sample preparation for RT-PCR, and related works.

Current Lab Status:

Currently we are not receiving any samples as well as consumables due to decrease in the COVID-19 cases. So, at present the testing center is managed by one lab technician for proper maintenance of the instruments. As we start getting samples in coming days, the recruitment process of the empty positions will be processed.

Also, we request state government to provide similar support provided to GIMS and other testing centers established government institution for managing man power and consumables.
