CIRCULAR

Sub: The Admission of Ph. D. students stands cancelled automatically on completion of 5 years of period-reg.

As per the Ordinance No.54, Section 28(1)(d) (at page No. 176) of the Ordinance Governing Academic and Administrative Matters, the research scholar has to complete the Ph. D. programme within eight semesters including submission of Ph D thesis from the date of admission. However, an extension of two semesters may be given on the basis of the request of the scholar after taking approval in the DRC and CASR.

The scholars who have taken admission in the month of July/August 2018 have already completed the term of 10 semesters (including extension of two semesters) in the month of July/August 2023. Further, it is noticed that the progress of the research work is not found as per the requirement.

Therefore, as per the above clause of the Ordinance, the admission of Ph. D. scholars, who were admitted in the year 2018 but not yet completed, deemed to be cancelled with immediate effect.
