Item No. 84.22 Academic Council Item No. 40.02	Merger of the Department of Foreign Languages with the Department of English and renaming as the Department of English and Foreign Languages — Consideration and approval thereof. The Central University of Karnataka has established the Department of English and the Department of Foreign Languages, each with a sanctioned strength of seven (07) teaching posts in the ratio of 1:2:4 (Professor: Associate Professor: Assistant Professor). The Department of English offers Undergraduate, Postgraduate and Ph.D. programmes, with all sanctioned posts filled and sufficient student enrolment. The Department also provides language courses to students of other disciplines, thereby requiring additional academic support. In contrast, the Department of Foreign Languages offers only Ph.D. programme and is presently functioning with very low student enrolment. Out of seven sanctioned posts, only four Assistant Professors are in position (Arabic, German, Japanese and Spanish), while the posts of Professor and Associate Professors remain vacant despite repeated recruitment efforts. In view of the above, and to ensure effective utilization of faculty and academic resources, it is proposed to merge the Department of Foreign Languages with the Department of English and rename the merged entity as the Department of English and Foreign Languages. It is also proposed to utilize the vacant senior faculty positions to strengthen the Department of English.
Deliberation :	The Executive Council deliberated on the proposal approved by the Academic Council regarding the merger of the Department of Foreign Languages with the Department of English. The Council noted that while the Department of English is fully functional with adequate faculty and student enrolment, the Department of Foreign Languages is functioning with limited enrolment and vacant senior faculty positions. Considering the need for optimal utilization of academic resources, faculty strength, and strengthening interdisciplinary teaching, the workload of English department the members agreed the proposal for merger and renaming of English Department.
Resolution :	The Executive Council considered and approved the merger of the Department of Foreign Languages with the Department of English and the renaming of the merged entity as the Department of English and Foreign Languages.
